Hirohito

What kept were going: (during & after Operation
(early war?)

1) - desire of Hist & Byrnes to drop Bomb - not really till August '45
(no opposition)

2) Does US promise not to press? (= conviction Emperor (Sov-Hed) = Kengis)
(not, UK)

Emperor, Navy, For Min - must promise not

Army, Cos, Min - must promise not to press US
4? (No occupation

NO US / Int. trials

(if any, before trials)

So keep Hirohito was not a concession of US

It wanted to - most American but to press it (which Emperor + wanted, wanted Hirohito "demanded" - till Aug. 9 (SD, Nagasaki)

demanded would be seen as an unwilling concession (can be demanded of any American (even to get surrender?)

as much as others

(American? American?)

(Kis feng - not aggressors was asked?

Chi. Emperor, and many officials (Kengis? threat to Hist, Byrnes (Ambassador, Hedrick) were willing)

Hiroshima

2.

If US had ^{promised} prosecuted trials for "all" (Enfance) for Herman (Viter suicide
Herman? Berman?
Blitz...)

then we would have had to invade, occupy - Japanese fight to last child.

Not worth it.

US did not promise not to press Hiro.
did not defect from UCS

But US did hint (under ambiguous statute) that if agent/president would (not, certainly) not press Hiro

"Japanese people could choose the regime (e.g. emperor, republic, democracy... perhaps monarchy (retained))

but does "regime" = Hirohito?

If Hiro is Emperor:
not a divine monarch

(you can have an emperor - but not me.
this one, Hirohito - as one witness from Berlin).

But the hint was enough for Hirohito - probably as of midnight Aug. 2 (before Nagasaki: after SU entry, not right after Hiroshima)

Waxer Hair. Some suggest that before (big total that there would be) SU early?

Big right off alone
 + the world before SU would help
 do better (with living).
